26 JUNE - 4 AUGUST 2025

It is that special time of the year again when we set ourselves apart to seek the Lord through fasting and prayer – it is time for 40 Days of Power. This is a sacred season for the members of the International Central Gospel Church (ICGC) and many Christians across various denominations, that participate in this 40-day period of seeking God's face in a corporate fast. Over the years it has been my great joy and honour to lead God's people on this spiritual journey. I continually praise God as I witness His people joining their hearts in faith and prayer – and as I behold His faithfulness manifested in many answered prayers.

The theme for ICGC in 2025 is 'Jesus'. From the beginning of this year, and through to its end, we have set our focus on the foundation and centre of our Christian faith – Christ Jesus. We are committed to deepening our knowledge of His person, His purpose, His principles, His provision and His power. This season of consecration is a divine opportunity for each one of us to reaffirm Jesus as our Lord and Saviour and to draw nearer to Him. As we do, we will receive His sufficient grace, through His Spirit, to live lives of purpose and victory. As Scripture declares "And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace." (John 1:16). There will be an outpouring of grace as we pray in faith.

This year's 40 Days of Power begins from Thursday, 26th June 2025, and ends on Monday, 4th August 2025. Throughout this period, we will spend time praying about our personal lives, our families, the church, and the nations of the world.

Various ICGC assemblies will host in-person prayer services. You are welcome to visit any assembly for personal prayer or to join others in corporate prayer at various advertised service times.

This prayer guide will be a helpful companion for you during the 40-day period. It includes weekly themes and daily sub-themes, each supported with relevant scriptures for reflection. It also provides a biblical basis to pray in accordance with God's word. With this guide, you can pray with focus on a wide array of topics covering diverse themes. Various declarations have been included for confession, to make each day's prayers even more meaningful.

As always, endeavour to fast wisely with thoughtful consideration for your health and wellbeing. Read and apply the helpful tips on effective fasting that have been included in this guide.

As you embark on this spiritual journey, may your knowledge of Jesus, our reigning King, increase! May He grant you many testimonies of answered prayer!

Shalom!

HELPFUL HINTS FOR FASTING

The practice of regular fasting is a normal Christian discipline taught by Jesus. In Matthew 6:16–18, Jesus provided guidelines for fasting. Fasting was also practiced by the early church as evidenced in Acts 13:2. It has been a lifestyle for believers throughout church history.

Fasting has physical as well as spiritual benefits. It must be embarked on with spiritual commitment and wisdom, with a heart's desire to glorify God.

Do's Of Fasting

1. It is best to prepare your body for the fast by cutting back on food portions and eating smaller meals. This will help your body adjust more easily to the change in meal times.
2. Prevent constipation during and after the fast by eating fresh fruit and raw vegetables, fruit or vegetable juices, oatmeal, and so on.
3. Drink lots of water as you fast.
4. Seek medical advice before the fast if you have any existing health conditions.
5. You can fast in different ways. For example, a Daniel fast is one in which you consume only vegetables and water throughout the fast. Prayerfully seek God's face concerning the kind of fast you would wish to embark on.
6. Have a clear target as your prayer focus. Scripture teaches that without a vision or clear goal, the people perish (Proverbs 29:18). Write down your vision for the fast so you can run with it (Habakkuk 2:2).
7. Take time to pray and read God's Word. This may seem obvious, but busyness and distractions can keep you from daily devotions. Expect to hear God's voice as you read His word, through dreams, visions, and revelations as He wills. Daniel prepared himself to receive revelation through fasting (Daniel 10:1–2).
8. Break your fast gradually. At this point you will need to exercise watchful self-control. Break your fast on a meal that is light and easy to digest (i.e., broth, shredded apples, watermelon, or steamed vegetables).
9. Anticipate spiritual opposition. Satan tempted Jesus while He fasted, and we must not be surprised if we face the same. Discouragement may come, but take your stand on the victory of Christ.

Don'ts Of Fasting

1. Avoid high-fat and sugary foods during the fast.
2. Abstain from strong stimulants such as caffeinated and sugary drinks during a fast, including the artificial sweeteners found in diet drinks.
3. It is important after a fast to control your cravings and avoid overeating, which can nullify the gains made during the fast.

Commit to staying the course –to fast from the beginning to the end. You are well able to do it, and God's grace is sufficient for you.

WEEK 1
WALKING IN RIGHTEOUSNESS

A CALL TO FAST

So the people of Nineveh believed God, proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them. Then word came to the king of Nineveh; and he arose from his throne and laid aside his robe, covered himself with sackcloth and sat in ashes. (Jonah 3:5-6)

DAY 1 - JUNE 26

Morning Reflection

Jonah 3:5-10

So the people of Nineveh believed God, proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them. Then word came to the king of Nineveh; and he arose from his throne and laid aside his robe, covered himself with sackcloth and sat in ashes. And he caused it to be proclaimed and published throughout Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; do not let them eat, or drink water. But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God; yes, let everyone turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands. Who can tell if God will turn and relent, and turn away from His fierce anger, so that we may not perish? Then God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God relented from the disaster that He had said He would bring upon them, and He did not do it.

Scripture for Reflection

UNITED WITH CHRIST

Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been united together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also shall be in the likeness of His resurrection. (Romans 6:4-5)

DAY 2 - JUNE 27

Morning Reflection

Romans 6:1-7

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? Certainly not! How shall we who died to sin live any longer in it? Or do you not know that as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been united together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also shall be in the likeness of His resurrection, knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin. For he who has died has been freed from sin.

2. Ask the Lord to wash and cleanse you and fill you with a spirit that delights in His will.

6. Pray for strength and grace to honor God with your body and live as a vessel set apart for Him.
7. Intercede for the Church to boldly proclaim a call to repentance and a return to godly living across the nations.
8. Ask the Lord to draw unbelievers into His family and guide them on the path of righteousness during this season of prayer.

Protection

9. Thank God for being your rock through every trial and for shielding you from destruction.
10. Confess that as you walk in obedience and holiness, divine protection is your portion.
11. Declare that the blood of Jesus has washed you clean and silenced every accusation of the enemy.
12. Pray against every unholy practice in the Church that seeks to tarnish its witness and dishonor the name of Christ.

Declaration

Lord Jesus, thank You for calling me out of darkness into Your marvelous light. I lay aside every garment of sin and walk in Your righteousness. As a child of God, I stand secure and covered under the banner of Christ and walk boldly in holiness, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Scripture for Reflection

TURN TO RIGHTEOUSNESS

That you put off, concerning your former conduct, the old man which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and that you put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness. (Ephesians 4:22-24)

DAY 3 - JUNE 28

Morning Reflection

Ephesians 4:17-24

This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you should no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their mind, having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart; who, being past feeling, have given themselves over to lewdness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. But you have not so learned Christ, if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus: that you put off, concerning your former conduct, the old man which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and that you put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness.

Consecration

1. Set yourself apart unto the Lord and ask Him to empower you to live a life wholly devoted to Him.
2. Surrender every area of your life to God and pray for a renewed passion to pursue holiness with conviction.

4. Ask the Holy Spirit to lead you to live by His power and not by the impulses of the flesh.

Guidance

5. Invite the Holy Spirit to guide your heart into a lifestyle of purity and to help you avoid every form of compromise.
6. Ask God to train your ears to hear His voice and give you a heart that responds quickly in obedience.
7. Pull down every stronghold of distraction and ungodly desire that hinders your full submission to God.
8. Commit every decision into the hands of the Lord and trust Him to lead you on paths of righteousness.

Protection

9. Ask God to guard you from choices that appear good but lead away from His perfect will.
10. Declare that because Christ lives in you, every weapon of the enemy against your life shall fail.
11. Ask God to uncover and cancel every hidden trap or plot of the enemy concerning you and your family.
12. Pray for divine protection from harmful relationships and habits that can derail your walk with the Lord.

Declaration

I declare that I have put off the old self and embraced the new life in Christ. I no longer live for sin, but Christ lives in me. I am set apart for God's holy purpose, and each step I take is led by His Spirit. In Jesus' name. Amen.

As I imitate Christ and live for Him, others are touched by my example and inspired to follow Him. I praise the Lord for making me a vessel of honour, set apart for His glorious purpose. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Scripture for Reflection

Colossians 3:9-10

Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his deeds, and have put on the new man who is renewed in knowledge according to the image of Him who created him.

Declaration

*I praise the Lord that my life is hidden in Christ and clothed in His righteousness. By faith, I walk in daily victory over sin. I choose a consecrated life that brings honour and glory to God's holy name, in Jesus' name. Amen.

LIVE BY THE SPIRIT

I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, so that you do not do the things that you wish. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. (Galatians 5:16-17)

DAY 4 - JUNE 29

Morning Reflection

Galatians 5:16-25

I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, so that you do not do the things that you wish. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

Consecration

1. Praise the Lord for the gift of the Holy Spirit; thank Him that He empowers you to walk in victory over sin.
2. Declare your freedom in Christ from every sinful habit that has held you bound.
3. Ask the Lord to create in you a deep desire to live by the Spirit and a genuine longing for holiness.
4. Pray that your spirit will stay sensitive and submissive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit daily.

Guidance

5. Pray for clarity and sensitivity to follow the leadings of the Holy Spirit in all areas of your life.
6. Ask the Lord to renew your mind and help you to align your desires with His will and Word.
7. Intercede for your household—that each member will seek and walk in God's perfect will.
8. Pray for divine wisdom to resist pressures that push you into decisions outside of God's purpose.

Protection

9. Declare that as you walk in the Spirit, no weapon fashioned against you will prosper.
10. Reject every influence, voice, or habit that competes with God's counsel in your life.
11. Thank the Lord that His Spirit will guard your heart and lead you into all truth.
12. Ask the Lord to preserve you from environments, conversations, and people that weaken your faith.

Declaration

Thank You Lord, for Your word that instructs and corrects. I declare that I am committed to obeying Your voice. You are my Shepherd; I will follow You into paths of peace and righteousness. As I yield to Your leading, my soul will find rest in You, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Declaration

*I believe in the power of God working in me to fulfill His purpose. I receive divine wisdom to mature in my calling and to be a vessel of blessing to my family and the nations. My life will reflect the nature and character of Christ wherever I go, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Scripture for Reflection

Romans 8:13–14

For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.

Declaration

*Through Christ's finished work, I receive strength to do God's will. Like the sons of Issachar, I walk in spiritual discernment and obey divine instruction. God's Word lights my path, and by His guidance, I fulfill my purpose in Jesus' name. Amen.

WEEK 2
IMMANUEL — GOD WITH US

THE FAITHFULNESS OF GOD'S PROMISES

But as God is faithful, our word to you was not Yes and No. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us—by me, Silvanus, and Timothy—was not Yes and No, but in Him was Yes. For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us. (2 Corinthians 1:18-20)

DAY 5 - JUNE 30

Morning Reflection

2 Corinthians 1:15-23

And in this confidence I intended to come to you before, that you might have a second benefit—to pass by way of you to Macedonia, to come again from Macedonia to you, and be helped by you on my way to Judea. Therefore, when I was planning this, did I do it lightly? Or the things I plan, do I plan according to the flesh, that with me there should be Yes, Yes, and No, No? But as God is faithful, our word to you was not Yes and No. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us—by me, Silvanus, and Timothy—was not Yes and No, but in Him was Yes. For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us. Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and has anointed us is God, who also has sealed us and given us the Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee. Moreover I call God as witness against my soul, that to spare you I came no more to Corinth. Not that we have dominion over your faith, but are fellow workers for your joy; for by faith you stand.

Consecration

1. Thank the Lord for the privilege of drawing near through the blood of Jesus, and for the assurance that He hears when you call.
2. Ask for the cleansing power of Christ to purge every thought or attitude that hinders your intimacy with God.
3. Declare that in moments of pressure, you will remain anchored in the victory that Christ secured for you and in His faithful promises.

5. Pray that the Lord will sharpen your ears to discern His voice amid life's distractions.
6. Ask the Holy Spirit to lead you to the promise of God you need for every season.
7. Ask for divine guidance in every decision you make; affirm that no confusion or loss will be your portion.
8. Pray that God will surround you with wise and godly counsel, that through them, you will experience His timely help in all matters.

Protection

9. Thank God for His unfailing love and covering over your household; declare that in Him, you are more than a conqueror.
10. Pray cancelling every evil plan of the enemy and ask the Lord to expose hidden traps laid for you by him.
11. Pray that no weapon formed against the Church will prosper, and that her influence will increase.
12. Declare that you, your family, and your church are shielded by divine grace and preserved from every harm.

Declaration

I give thanks to God who has drawn me near by the blood of Jesus and made me a partaker of His promises. I walk in Christ's victory and led daily by Him Spirit. In all my choices, I am guided by the Lord, and no purpose of God for my life shall fail to materialize, in Jesus' name. Amen.

24. Pray that God will redirect your steps from paths of self-will to the ways He has ordained for your good.
25. Surrender every difficult issue in your life to the Lord and ask Him to take full control.

Declaration

I declare that the Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. His leadership governs the work of my hands and every aspect of my life. In this Jesus year, I boldly testify that I shall experience His hand and declare His wonders in Jesus' name. Amen.

Scripture for Reflection

Romans 4:16-22

Therefore it is of faith that it might be according to grace, so that the promise might be sure to all the seed, not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all (as it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations") in the presence of Him whom he believed—God, who gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did; who, contrary to hope, in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, according to what was spoken, "So shall your descendants be." And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body, already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb. He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God, and being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform. And therefore "it was accounted to him for righteousness."

Declaration

I stand in agreement with believers everywhere and declare that God's purpose for the Church and my life will prevail. The Holy Spirit leads me into His presence, and I receive His goodness, protection, and supply for myself and my family. As I call on Him, I am confident that He will answer and reveal to me great and mighty things I have not known, in Jesus' name. Amen.

GOD MADE FLESH

That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, concerning the Word of life— the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you that eternal life which was with the Father and was manifested to us. (1 John 1:1-2)

DAY 6 - JULY 1

Morning Reflection

1 John 1:1-4

That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, concerning the Word of life— the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you that eternal life which was with the Father and was manifested to us— that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. John 1:1-7

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. This man came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all through him might believe.

DAY 7 - JULY 2

GOD IS NEAR

And He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and the boundaries of their dwellings, so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us; for in Him we live and move and have our being, as also some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also His offspring.' (Acts 17:26-28)

Morning Reflection

Acts 17:22-34

Then Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious; for as I was passing through and considering the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Therefore, the One whom you worship without knowing, Him I proclaim to you: God, who made the world and everything in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands. Nor is He worshiped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, since He gives to all life, breath, and all things. And He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and the boundaries of their dwellings, so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us; for in Him we live and move and have our being, as also some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also His offspring.' Therefore, since we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, something shaped by art and man's devising. Truly, these times of ignorance God overlooked, but now commands all men everywhere to repent, because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by raising Him from the dead." And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, while others said, "We will hear you again on this matter." So Paul departed from among them. However, some men joined him and believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

If I say, "Surely the darkness shall fall on me," Even the night shall be light about me; Indeed, the darkness shall not hide from You, But the night shines as the day; The darkness and the light are both alike to You. For You formed my inward parts; You covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; marvelous are Your works, and that my soul knows very well.

GOD IS FOR US

What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things? (Romans 8:31-32)

DAY 8 - JULY 3

Morning Reflection

Romans 8:31-39

What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things? Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written: "For Your sake we are killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter." Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

At that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you. He who has My commandments and keeps them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and manifest Myself to him.” Judas (not Iscariot) said to Him, “Lord, how is it that You will manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?” Jesus answered and said to him, “If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him. GOD IS PRESENT IN PRAYER AND WORSHIP

But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed. (Acts 16:25-26)

And the keeper of the prison, awaking from sleep and seeing the prison doors open, supposing the prisoners had fled, drew his sword and was about to kill himself. But Paul called with a loud voice, saying, "Do yourself no harm, for we are all here." Then he called for a light, ran in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. And he brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" So they said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household." Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes. Scripture for Reflection Ephesians 3:14–21

For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height—to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Declaration

WEEK 3
FOLLOWING JESUS

TAKE UP YOUR CROSS

Then He said to them all, 'If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me.' (Luke 9:23)

DAY 12 - JULY 7

Morning Reflection

Luke 9:23-27

Then He said to them all, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it. For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and is himself destroyed or lost? For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him the Son of Man will be ashamed when He comes in His own glory, and in His Father's, and of the holy angels. But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the kingdom of God."

FORSAKING ALL

So when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all and followed Him.' (Luke 9:23)

DAY 13 - JULY 8

Morning Reflection

Luke 5:1-11

So it was, as the multitude pressed about Him to hear the word of God, that He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret, and saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gone from them and were washing their nets. Then He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat. When He had stopped speaking, He said to Simon, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." But Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net." And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking. So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!" For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken; and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. From now on you will catch men." So when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all and followed Him.

HE LEADS THE WAY

And when he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them; and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. (John 10:4)

DAY 14 - JULY 9

Morning Reflection

John 10:1-6

“Most assuredly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. And when he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them; and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. Yet they will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this illustration, but they did not understand the things which He spoke to them.

And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. (Luke 14:27)

DAY 15 - JULY 10

Morning Reflection

Luke 14:25-33

Now great multitudes went with Him. And He turned and said to them, "If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple. And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost, whether he has enough to finish it—lest, after he has laid the foundation, and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish'? Or what king, going to make war against another king, does not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is still a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks conditions of peace. So likewise, whoever of you does not forsake all that he has cannot be My disciple.

Scripture for Reflection

Matthew 13:44–46

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls, who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.”

FIXING OUR EYES ON JESUS

Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. (Hebrews 12:2)

DAY 16 - JULY 11

Morning Reflection

Hebrews 12:1-11

Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls. You have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin. And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons: "My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord, nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him; For whom the Lord loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives." If you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom a father does not chasten? But if you are without chastening, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not sons. Furthermore, we have had human fathers who corrected us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to the Father of spirits and live? For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed best to them, but He for our profit, that we may be partakers of His holiness. Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Consecration

1. Thank the Lord for His mercies and for sustaining you through this journey of devotion and power.
2. Pray for a heart that is continually softened before God—willing to yield and obey at His prompting.
3. Ask the Lord to purge every distraction and idol that competes with His place in your heart and life.
4. Declare that your eyes, your heart, and your mind are set on Christ; ask for grace to live a life wholly devoted to Him.

Guidance

5. Present every plan and decision before the Lord; ask Him to direct your path with clarity and peace.
6. Pray for discernment to recognize His leading above all the voices that contend for your attention.
7. Ask the Holy Spirit to align your desires with God's will so that your steps are always ordered by Him.
8. Thank the Lord that even in seasons of uncertainty, His guidance is sure and His counsel unfailing.

Protection

9. Ask the Lord to shield you from the subtle snares that seek to turn your gaze away from Jesus.
10. Declare that no fear, temptation, or trial will separate you from the love and purpose of God.
11. Pray that every storm meant to shake your faith will instead deepen your trust in the Lord.
12. Affirm that your life and household are hidden in Christ and preserved from harm, distraction, and deception.

Declaration

*I fix my heart on the Lord who is my portion and my strength. His light shines upon my path, His hand holds me fast, and His voice leads me into truth. I will not be shaken, for my eyes are set on Him, and He is faithful to complete what He has begun in me. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Scripture for Reflection

Psalms 123:1-2

Unto You I lift up my eyes, O You who dwell in the heavens. Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, So our eyes look to the Lord our God, until He has mercy on us.

Declaration

I set my heart and focus on Christ. I run with endurance the race set before me, laying aside every weight. I press on, not looking back, for my eyes are on the One who reigns forever. In Him, I find strength, direction, and eternal joy. In Jesus' name. Amen.

FOLLOW HIS STEPS

*For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps.
(1 Peter 2:21)*

DAY 17 - JULY 12

Morning Reflection

1 Peter 2:18-25

Servants, be submissive to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the harsh. For this is commendable, if because of conscience toward God one endures grief, suffering wrongfully. For what credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God. For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps: "Who committed no sin, nor was deceit found in His mouth"; who, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but committed Himself to Him who judges righteously; who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness—by whose stripes you were healed. For you were like sheep going astray, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Consecration

1. Praise God for the transformative power of your new birth in Christ; thank Him that you are able to overcome the world through faith.
2. Dedicate yourself anew to the Lord and boldly declare victory over past sins.
3. Ask God to grant you discernment to refute doubts and deceptions that weaken your faith in Jesus Christ as the Son of God.

5. Bless the Lord for restoring you to Himself when you go astray.
6. Ask for the Holy Spirit's discernment to walk the path of righteousness.
7. Ask the Lord to show you an example of the righteous life He wants you to live.

Scripture for ReflectionJohn 13:12-17

So when He had washed their feet, taken His garments, and sat down again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?" "You call Me Teacher and Lord, and you say well, for so I am." "If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet." "For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you." LIVING THE LIFE OF CHRIST

*For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
(Philippians 1:21)*

DAY 18 - JULY 13

Morning Reflection

Philippians 1:19-26

For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain. But if I live on in the flesh, this will mean fruit from my labor; yet what I shall choose I cannot tell. For I am hard-pressed between the two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you. And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of faith, that your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

Consecration

WEEK 4
PROCLAIMING JESUS

BOLDLY PROCLAIM CHRIST

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek. (Romans 1:16)

DAY 19 - JULY 14

Morning Reflection

Romans 1:8-17

First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. 9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of His Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers, making request if, by some means, now at last I may find a way in the will of God to come to you. For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established— that is, that I may be encouraged together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me. Now I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that I often planned to come to you (but was hindered until now), that I might have some fruit among you also, just as among the other Gentiles. I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to wise and to unwise. So, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the gospel to you who are in Rome also. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek. This is the 'stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the chief cornerstone.' Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved." Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated and untrained men, they marveled. And they realized that they had been with Jesus. And seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

Scripture: John 12:27-36

"Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour'? But for this purpose I came to this hour. Father, glorify Your name." Then a voice came from heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again." Therefore the people who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to Him." Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come because of Me, but for your sake. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast out. And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself." This He said, signifying by what death He would die. The people answered Him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains forever; and how can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?" Then Jesus said to them, "A little while longer the light is with you. Scripture for Reflection

Joel 2:28–30

“And it shall come to pass afterward That I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, Your old men shall dream dreams, Your young men shall see visions. And also on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days. And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: Blood and fire and pillars of smoke.

JESUS IS LORD

*And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
(Philippians 2:11)*

DAY 24 - JULY 19

Morning Reflection

Philippians 2:5-11

Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Consecration

1. Thank God for the unchanging truth that 'Jesus is Lord'
2. Thank God that Jesus is the Lord of your life.
3. Boldly affirm that you are no longer under the dominion of sin, but empowered by grace to walk in the liberty Christ provides.

Scripture for Reflection

Romans 10:8–13

But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Declaration

Jesus is Lord over every area of my life. I walk under the authority of His name and the power of His Word. His reign is unending, and His victory is my confidence. I rise above every fear, limitation, and resistance. Today and always, I proclaim: Jesus is Lord! Amen.

SHINE AS LIGHTS

that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, (Philippians 2:15)

DAY 25 - JULY 20

Morning Reflection

Hebrews 11:4-16

By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and through it he being dead still speaks. By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, “and was not found, because God had taken him”; for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. By faith Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he dwelt in the land of promise as in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise; for he waited for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God. By faith Sarah herself also received strength to conceive seed, and she bore a child when she was past the age, because she judged Him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born as many as the stars of the sky in multitude—innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off were assured of them, embraced them and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a homeland. And truly if they had called to mind that country from which they had come out, they would have had opportunity to return. But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

Consecration

1. Exalt the Lord your Deliverer, who has rescued you from darkness and called you by name to shine as a light in this generation.
2. Thank the Father for the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, your daily Guide into truth and righteousness.

6. Declare that as you yield in prayer, the Holy Spirit will give timely answers, breakthroughs, and strategies.
7. Ask the Lord to guide your feet into every promise, ensuring you walk fully in what He has ordained for you.
8. Confess that meditating on God's Word will ignite faith in your heart, enabling you to take hold of His promises with confidence.

9. Thank God for the blood of Jesus that secures your life, your peace, and your family from every form of harm.
10. Declare that every treasure God has given you is preserved; nothing shall be lost or stolen in Jesus' name.

My work is blessed, my household is established, and my calling is sure. God's promises to me are unwavering, and I declare their full manifestation in Jesus' name. Amen.

Scripture for Reflection

Matthew 5:13-16

"You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men. You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.

Scripture for Reflection

Romans 5:15–21

But the free gift is not like the offense. For if by the one man's offense many died, much more the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abounded to many. And the gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned... For if by the one man's offense death reigned through the one, much more those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ. Therefore, as through one man's offense judgment came to all men... For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so also by one Man's obedience many will be made righteous. Moreover the law entered that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace abounded much more, so that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

*Today, I walk in the fullness of grace upon grace. Every barrier is broken, every mountain is brought low, and every crooked path is straightened. The Spirit of God empowers me to overcome, and I possess all that the Lord has prepared for me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

DAY 27 - JULY 22

Morning Reflection

Romans 5:12-17

Therefore, just as through one man sin entered the world, and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because all sinned— (For until the law sin was in the world, but sin is not imputed when there is no law. Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned according to the likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is a type of Him who was to come. But the free gift is not like the offense. For if by the one man's offense many died, much more the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abounded to many. And the gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned. For the judgment which came from one offense resulted in condemnation, but the free gift which came from many offenses resulted in justification. For if by the one man's offense death reigned through the one, much more those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.)

The Lord is near to those who have a broken heart, And saves such as have a contrite spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous, But the Lord delivers him out of them all. He guards all his bones; Not one of them is broken. Evil shall slay the wicked...The Lord redeems the soul of His servants, And none of those who trust in Him shall be condemned.

DAY 30 - JULY 25

Morning Reflection

2 Peter 3:14-18

Therefore, beloved, looking forward to these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless; and consider that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation—as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you, as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures. You therefore, beloved, since you know this beforehand, beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked; but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Scripture for Reflection

1 Corinthians 4:1-7

Let a man so consider us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by a human court...For I know of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified by this; but He who judges me is the Lord. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes... ..that none of you may be puffed up on behalf of one against the other. For who makes you differ from another? And what do you have that you did not receive? Now if you did indeed receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

(1 Corinthians 15:10)*

DAY 32 - JULY 27

Morning Reflection

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received and in which you stand, by which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures, and that He was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve. After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have fallen asleep. After that He was seen by James, then by all the apostles. 8 Then last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time. For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. Therefore, whether it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

WEEK 6
WORKING THE WORKS OF GOD

WORKING THE WORKS OF GOD

Then they said to Him, 'What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?' Jesus answered and said to them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent.' (John 6:28-29)

DAY 33 - JULY 28

Morning Reflection

John 6:22-29

On the following day, when the people who were standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except that one which His disciples had entered, and that Jesus had not entered the boat with His disciples, but His disciples had gone away alone— however, other boats came from Tiberias, near the place where they ate bread after the Lord had given thanks— when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they also got into boats and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when did You come here?" Jesus answered them and said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw the signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled. Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give you, because God the Father has set His seal on Him." Then they said to Him, "What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?" Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent."

Scripture for Reflection

James 2:14–26

What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works... Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar? Do you see that faith was working together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect?

Declaration

*By faith in Jesus, I am empowered to work the works of God. No fear, no hindrance, no lack shall stop me. I move forward with divine authority, spiritual boldness, and fruitful obedience. I work while it is day and fulfill all that God has assigned to me. In Jesus' name. Amen.

EQUIPPED FOR EVERY GOOD WORK

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work. (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

But you have carefully followed my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, perseverance, persecutions, afflictions, which happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra—what persecutions I endured. And out of them all the Lord delivered me. Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. But you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. CALLED TO GOOD WORKS

For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them. (Ephesians 2:10)

DAY 35 - JULY 30

Morning Reflection

Ephesians 2:1-10

And you He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins, in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience, among whom also we all once conducted ourselves in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, just as the others. But God, who is rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), and raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.

Scripture for Reflection

Galatians 6:7–10

Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life. And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith.

THE FATHER'S BUSINESS

And He said to them, 'Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father's business?' (Luke 2:49)

DAY 36 - JULY 31

Morning Reflection

Luke 2:41-50

His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover. And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast. When they had finished the days, as they returned, the Boy Jesus lingered behind in Jerusalem. And Joseph and His mother did not know it; but supposing Him to have been in the company, they went a day's journey, and sought Him among their relatives and acquaintances. So when they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking Him. Now so it was that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions. And all who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers. So when they saw Him, they were amazed; and His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You done this to us? Look, Your father and I have sought You anxiously." And He said to them, "Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father's business?" But they did not understand the statement which He spoke to them.

LABOURING IN THE LORD

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord. (1 Corinthians 15:58)

DAY 38 - AUGUST 2

Morning Reflection

1 Corinthians 15:50-58

Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed— in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: “Death is swallowed up in victory.” “O Death, where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?” The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Scripture for Reflection

1 Corinthians 3:8–15

Now he who plants and he who waters are one, and each one will receive his own reward according to his own labor. For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, you are God's building. According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid the foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one take heed how he builds on it. For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is. If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

Declaration

I declare that the God of wonders is moving in my life. I am strategically placed to receive every reward and miracle prepared for me. I live in divine empowerment, and nothing shall stop the manifestation of God's promises in my life. I rejoice in the reward of my faith and labour, in Jesus' name. Amen.
